

VERONICA A. WILLIAMS

Highlights of Financial Expertise

Veronica A. Williams
Kellogg MBA, a M7 MBA Program
PgMP®, PMP®, ITIL®

ACT, Inc.

NJ/New York City Area Office:
UPON REQUEST
South Orange, NJ 07079-1932
Phone 973-761-7000
Fax 888-492-5864

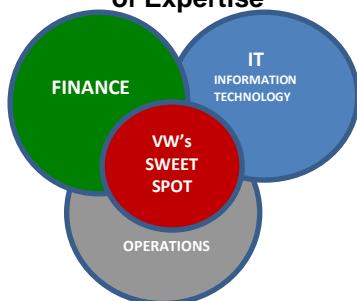

Nation's Capital Area Office:
UPON REQUEST
Washington, DC 20250
Phone 202-291-2000
Fax 888-492-5864

Home Page www.ACT-IT.com

Products www.Discover-IT.com

Services www.The5Ps.com

Sweet Spot Convergence of Expertise

Veronica A. Williams is a recognized authority on business and technology. Her education and experience in finance, economics and operations spans over 50 years:

- Started in 1960 at home with savings and budgeting training
- Elevated in 1971 – 77 as employee at U.S. Department of Agriculture's Economics Research Service
- Formalized in 1973 as student at Brandeis University
- Received Master's Degree in 1979 from Northwestern University's Kellogg Graduate School of Management
- Achieved Expertise at enterprise corporations 1979 – 1995 by delivering financial and operational custom solutions to money center banks, accounting firms and major firms.
- Expertise Validated:
 - 1995 Industry Analyst and Author
 - 2014 MBA International Competition Judge
 - 2009 vetted and appointed as FINRA Arbitrator
 - 2017 named Marquis Lifetime Achievement awardee elevated to a FINRA Arbitrator Chairperson

Ms. Williams is a graduate of Brandeis University with a B.A. degree in economics; she received an MBA in finance and economics from the J.L. Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University. She has studied in the US and Europe. With global awareness, Ms. Williams has consulted, served as an Advisor, and traveled worldwide.

For additional information visit www.VeronicaWilliams.com.